NEW BROCKTON BUSINESSMAN DIES SUDDENLY

Herbert Ballard Jones, of New Brockton, died Tuesday at 11:30 p.m. in Gibson hospital, Enterprise. Mr. Jones went to the hospital Thursday, last week, and underwent an operation Monday, this week, for kidney stones. He apparently was recovering until he suffered a heart attack and died Tuesday night. Mr. Jones was a prominent businessman, cattleman and farmer and lifelong resident of New Brockton.

He is survived by several brothers and sisters. Mrs. James Wise of Elba is a sister. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at his mother's old home in New Brockton.

Two heavy rains during the past week brought much-needed relief to crops of Coffee county which had begun to show the effects of a prolonged rainless period.

The rains fell in time to prevent serious loss yet to cotton and peanuts, but too late for corn production which will be greatly reduced as result of rainless weeks.

A rain of 1.1 inches Saturday and another of exactly the same amount Tuesday, broke a dry July, which had totaled less than an inch of rain until that time. According to J. Drayden Smith, who keeps weather records as a hobby, "The total with Tuesday's rain, for July was 27 inches with three weeks of the month gone. July last year, recorded 19 inches of rain."

ELBA SCOUTS ATTEND CAMP RESERVATION

As a caravan of cars carrying over 100 tired but happy boys passed through the gates of the Elba Chamber of Commerce showed $1,025.45 in the treasury with 56 paid memberships to date.

L. B. Murphree, chairman of the Membership committee, said the committee is still pushing towards a goal of 75 members and urged that all interested in Elba progress "see you" but pay their membership to a member of the committee or to Duke Tutum, Jr., secretary-treasurer.

Donner Roberts, chairman of the Housing committee, reported on the need for additional housing in Elba, especially houses with two or three bedrooms to accommodate families moving into the city.

The spacious 540 acres was the scene of four weeks of camp attended by over 400 Scouts and their adult leaders from all over the county. Scouts from almost every troop and town in the Council attended.

For the first time, the Scouts gathered in the spacious $250,000 dining hall situated on the shores of the lake's lake. The new building, erected last winter, will hold 250 boys. Also in use were many new cabins built during last year as part of a one million dollar building program in process at Clintonville, 5 miles north of New Brockton.

Attending from Troop 37 of Elba were 14 Scouts and one Junior leader. The Scouts were Johnny Jones, Mike Fick, Terry Pick, Bill Bruce, Danny Walters, Bert Casey, Bobby Inman, Butch Osgs, John Norman, Bob Norman, Mike Norman, Bobby Cooper, Tony Corley, and Leroy Stephens. The Junior leader was Roger Winston, who was a member of the camp staff for the full four weeks.

Plans for next year, according to Mr. Eugene W. Ansley, camp director, call for two weeks of camp with 200 boys each week in addition to expanded facilities and activities.

Rabies Diagnosed In Death of Calf

A three-month-old calf owned by William B. Crook, near Victoria, has definitely been diagnosed as rabid following its death recently.

The calf's head was sent to the State Health Laboratory, Montgomery, by Dr. P. H. Hamm, veterinarian, where it was diagnosed.

The veterinarian said this is an isolated case and there is no cause for alarm. He advised that when an animal is suspected of rabies it should be handled by humans until and unless it dies. Then the head should be sent to the state health department for diagnosis.

If found rabid, all persons who have come in contact with the animal should consult a physician for advice as to whether the degree of contact warrants anti-rabies shots.

Other officers previously elected are: E. D. Brazelton, first vice president; Mr. Casey, second vice president; Mr. Cooper, third vice president; Mr. Lowery, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Brunson, tall twister; Mr. Leroy Miller, Lion Tamer; Mr. Clark and Mr. Whitman, one-year directors; Mr. Miller and Mr. Daniels, two-year directors.

DEVELOPMENT POSSIBILITIES OF CHOCTAWHATCHEE STAGGERING

From Graceville, Florida News

The development possibilities of the Choctawhatchee river are positively staggering when you stop to think of it.

The extent of the potential development lies somewhere beyond the wildest imagination of the ordinary person.

It's the survey being conducted by the Corps of Engineers proves successful and it is found to be feasible to dredge and develop the river to the Choctawhatchee Bay, then cities and towns on her banks will have a direct connection with the great ports of the world.

Goods and products will flow through barges and river boats with their lower freight rates will enable many areas industries to expand.

Land values will skyrocket, especially land on the river. Ports will be built. Dams will create great reservoirs of water for recreational purposes. Large parks and recreational areas will mushroom on their banks.

People will flock to the rapidly growing cities. Truly—Where rivers flow with traffic, spring great industrial empires, great trade centers and greater prosperity.

Through the Keyhole

BY MRS. ROBERT CANNON

NEWS coming to us from Mobile tells us that Mint and Ralph Powell have added another little girl to their family. Born on the 10th of July, the little Miss has been named Elizabeth Gay and is now at home in the Powell's lovely new house.

MOST WELCOME visitor to our town last Wednesday was the Rev. Edgar, formerly pastor of the Methodist Church of Elba. It seemed quite natural to see him greeting friends before the drug store and we stopped with him to admire Master Sam Blue Devane, all swathed in pink batiste and lace.

The preacher said that he was on his way back to Mobile having been away for two weeks. He had been to Nashville, while Dot and the boys visited her parents. It was nice to know that the Edgar's are well and happy.

"HOME AT LAST" was the Franklin Myers, brother of the groom, of Carthage, Miss., Rev. Wayne Helms, cousin of the bride, of Brundidge, and Earl Tubbs of Vicksburg, Florida. Mrs. Chapman, mother of the bride, was stylishly dressed in a fitted jacket-dress of pink lined with a cotton lace bodice. Complementing her ensemble were white accessories and a corsage of blue carnations.

A fashionable two-piece dress of navy blue and white linen was worn by Mrs. Myers for her son's wedding. Pink carnations and white accessories highlighted her attire.

Members of the family and the bride party were entertained following the ceremony at a reception on the lawn of the bride's home. The arrangements of gladioli and chrysanthemums were used.

A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with pink roses and white lattice work centered the reception table which was laid in a club by Queen Ann's lace over pink with white candles in crystal candelabra on either side of the cake.

The pink bride's maid bouquets were used as table decorations. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Helen Holloman and serving at the lovely punch bowl was Mrs. Patricia Motley. Mrs. Sandra Malley assisted with serving. Mrs. Eugene Jacobs of Elba, presided at the bride's book.

When the couple left for a wedding trip along the coast of Florida, Miss. and to New Orleans, the bride was adorned in an enchanting mint green linen sheath dress and with this she wore white accessories and the orchid from her bride's bouquet.

The couple will make their home at 122 Butler Ave., Crestview, Florida.

way we greeted Eleanor Murphy when we saw her last week after her arrival from Key West, and she said that West was home now and that she, Joel and Joey are really enjoying their new home situated where the water can be seen from every side.

During her visit with the F. H. Murphy's, Eleanor and Joey traveled to South Carolina to see other relatives, so the times we got to see them were few. Eleanor was her usual lovely self and we thoroughly enjoyed hearing about young Joey's adventures. We hope next time Joel will get to come home with them.

WE CONSIDER Elba a nice town now that Charles and Betty Joyce Ellis have decided to make it their home. Although we have not seen Charles, Betty Joyce has been to many of the lovely bridal parties given lately and has already become one of the family. So to the Ellis's, a most cordial welcome!

THE HEAT has been the chief source of conversation lately and Olive Ray and Shorty Martin have been the coolest people in town with a completely air-conditioned home. We did not envy Olive Ray, the trucks and men that swarmed over her home this week, but we must say that the end results is most admirable.

A HANDSOME young man was the cynosure of all eyes Sunday as he escorted Norie Smith into church. We learned later that it is his diamond ring she is wearing and that there is much haste and bustle of preparation at the Smith home nowadays.

AND THE GRAPEVINE told us of another couple who plan a wedding in January. And how nice it is to see childhood sweethearts become "Mr. and Mrs." We'll look forward to both of these weddings.

HAVE BEEN TOLD that a most delightful party was given recently at the Marcus Dubose's home. They entertained some twenty five relatives from out-of-town with a fish fry in the back yard and everyone reported a good time.

FROM THE BIG CITY of Chicago a card tells us that Janice Paul is having her usual grand time seeing everything. She and Linda Spurlin are delegates to the National Future Homemakers of America Convention and are being treated to all the delights such a municipality has to offer.

A VERY SWEET young girl became sixteen recently and was entertained with an especially pretty party by her parents. And it is hard for us to realize that Janet Ware is no longer the chubby youngster who polished silver so agreeably for us. And we think "adorably" is the adjective for Janet as she has a personality as sunny as daffodils and we've never known her to forget her "mama's and papa's."

The party will long be remembered by the 23 who attended. Given at Nell and Drexel Cook's farm, the guests were welcomed by candles burning in hurricane lamps set abundantly about the lawn to highlight an area for dancing. Inside a color scheme of pink and silver was used. A backdrop of tufted pink crepe paper reached to the ceiling. A standard basket of pink and white gladioli at one side complemented the satin ribbon that spelled out "Happy Birthday, Janet" in silver glitter across the pink background.

The refreshment table was placed before this arrangement and covered with a lovely cut-work cloth. Full white candles in silver candelabra were adorned with sprays of roses and in the center of the table was a three tiered pink cake topped with a delicate porcelain doll and sixteen candles.

backdrop of tufted pink crepe paper reached to the ceiling. A standard basket of pink and white gladioli at one side complemented the satin ribbon that spelled out "Happy Birthday, Janet" in silver glitter across the pink background.

The refreshment table was placed before this arrangement and covered with a lovely cut-work cloth. Full white candles in silver candelabra were adorned with sprays of roses and in the center of the table was a three tiered pink cake topped with a delicate porcelain doll and sixteen candles.

HOME OWNED AND OPERATED

Just as most all men connected with Piggly Wiggly are natives of this area, C. C. Cotter, General Manager, is a native of Coffee County.

Besides being General Manager of the ten Piggly Wiggly stores owned and operated by the Chapman Company, Mr. Cotter is the head of the building division, and was responsible for coordinating the ideas of the architect, the Piggly Wiggly factory, and local builders to give Elba this fine layout for Super Market Service.

Cotter is well known in Elba, having visited here on several occasions, and a couple of years ago was lucky to pick up a gift of the Elba Chamber of Commerce for $1.00 which was an occasion that gave away $100. in cash for four football tickets to the Sugar Bowl.

Mr. Cotter stated that this was the finest store his company had built, and that he was proud to have it in Elba where people have been so good and so responsive to Piggly Wiggly.

Store supervisor in Elba, F. E. Chapman, Chapman is a native of Brundidge, and has been manager of several Piggly Wiggly stores in this area.

His last store was the Troy Piggly Wiggly before being made supervisor, and moving to the home office at Geneva, Chapman, as well as the other supervisors, has been putting in many hours in getting the new store ready for the opening Wednesday and according to Chapman, "We are making this store our best, and are getting ready for the finest opening we ever had."

New Piggly Wiggly opens Wed., July 22, 8 A.M.

STORE MANAGER

ASST. MGT. SUPERVISOR

W. F. NICHOLS

Born and reared in Crenshaw county, Mr. Nichols was market manager of Piggly Wiggly in Luverne nine years before going to Geneva as Assistant Market Supervisor for Benson Wholesale Co. A position he has held since January, 1955.

Much of the success of Piggly Wiggly in Elba, has been due to likable and talented store manager, B. T. Stanford, who moved to Elba, with Mrs. Stanford, four years ago from Ozark, Stanford stated, "I have never lived in a town in which people were friendlier or which I enjoyed more than Elba."

In the old Piggly Wiggly, where space was little, aisles were narrow, and lack of room, could have caused much confusion, Stanford was always on hand with a smile and a friendly greeting for his customers. Stanford will be manager of the new Piggly Wiggly and stated that he was greatly pleased that his company gave him the facilities in which he could render a better service.

Produce manager for the new Piggly Wiggly's Tommy Hanchey, who is a native of Elba. He states that it will be wonderful working in the new self service produce where he has ample room to display the many local and imported varieties of fruits and vegetables.

To help him get the produce into the store and merchandised properly, he has produce supervisors W. H. Cain, a native of Coffee County, Mr. Cain is supervisor for all Company owned stores and is responsible for purchasing produce and frozen foods.

Cain stated that people of Elba would be supplied with the finest in-season and out-of-season produce available, and that it would be the purpose of Piggly Wiggly to act as, or supplement, the garden of its customers.

New Piggly Wiggly Is Last Word In Store Convenience-Arrangement

The above photograph shows the newly completed Piggly Wiggly at Elba, and the spacious parking lot available for the convenience of its customers.

Property was purchased from C. O. Alfred and Mrs. Mollie Loflin. The two houses occupied by these people were removed. An interesting incident in making the changes to commercial property was the fact that a flowing well was piped, and is being used as auxiliary water service for the commercial business.

NASCO, an Elba firm, was contracted to construct the building. Mr. Dan Pittman, engineer for Eno Engineers, Enterprise, was secured to do the engineering and to oversee the building details.

Management officers of Piggly Wiggly include C. C. Chapman, of Geneva, who has been instrumental in the growth of Piggly Wiggly Super Markets in this area during the past twenty years.

Mr. Chapman was born and reared on a farm five miles north of Elba. When he was a senior in High School, his father, the late Dr. Rick Chapman, became ill. Finding it necessary to leave school, and the honor of valedictorian, before he could graduate, Mr. Chapman moved with his family to Geneva, where he had relatives and where he obtained a job in a merchant store, which later he bought.

W. T. Benson, founder with Mr. Chapman, of one of the first Piggly Wiggly stores in Alabama, has been active in management of a family-owned group since returning from the Armed Services in 1945. He was born and reared in Opp, and before moving to Geneva, to become associated with Mr. Chapman, was editor and owner of the Opp Weekly News.

Chapman and Benson have established a distribution center at Geneva, known as Benson Wholesale Company, to service Piggly Wiggly stores.

Mr. Benson stated that he and his group of associates were glad to be able to bring to Elba this fine Piggly Wiggly store. He stated that Elba had been good to them, and that it was their obligation and responsibility to give Elba and this part of Coffee County a store in which they could shop in comfort and satisfaction.

A gala occasion of attractions awaits the people of Elba, Coffee County and surrounding territory with the opening of Elba's new Piggly Wiggly Wednesday, July 22, at 8:00 A. M.

The occasion is not just the opening of a new Super Market, but is results of years of advancement to the gradual transition of grocery stores to the idea of complete self-service Super Market distribution.

The new Elba Piggly Wiggly located at the intersection of Buried and Chalkley streets, has been years in planning and months in building. With a total investment of real estate, building, fixtures and merchandise of approximately three hundred thousand dollars, this store promises to be one of the most advanced ideas in the South in Super Market arrangements.

The owners carefully selected what was considered an ideal site for the location of the new store. Having secured proper real estate, architects and builders were given the signal to erect a building that would be a credit to this area, bringing into existence one of the finest and most modern Super Markets in the South.

NASCO, was employed to construct the building with fixtures being manufactured in the Piggly Wiggly factory at Jackson, Tennessee.

When the store opens, it will be filled with the finest merchandise now available on the American market. Hundreds of items never stocked in Elba before, will be on the shelves for convenience of the people of this area.

Manufacturers are offering special values during the opening week in their cooperation to Piggly Wiggly.

Hundreds of free gifts await the people who attend the opening and according to the management, this will be an occasion long remembered in this area.

According to management of Piggly Wiggly, they stated that it was their desire to have a completely new store, and not combine old fixtures with new fixtures.

Hundreds of square feet will be devoted to special display features of frozen foods, ice cream, dairy products, self-service meats, produce and other merchandise needing special fixtures and special refrigeration. Modernized check stands will add to efficiency and speed for the customer who is entitled to, and wants fast service.

Many surprise features await the people when they visit the new Piggly store, surprises that show that nothing has been spared to make this the newest and one of the finest stores in the South.

From Ox-Cart to a modern Dorsey Trailers—! What could better summarize the progress of Elba and the rest of Coffee County?

The forerunner of Dorsey Trailers was a firm manufacturing stump pullers—yes, to clear the way for dirt roads over which ox-carts could travel faster!

Today from Elba flows a variety of trailers to all parts of the U. S. and foreign countries.

Prosperity lies ahead such as this country never thought possible a few years ago. Elba and the rest of Coffee county will share in that prosperity. Dorsey Trailers continues to march ahead with Elba, Coffee county and the United States!

TOTAL COUNTY
DEBTS LISTED
AT $763,109.

Three of Coffee counties neighbors chalked up greater debts for the year ended September 30, 1958 than Coffee county. Out of the State's 67 counties, 24 exceeded the Col-fee county debt. Last year, only two neighboring counties owed more and only 22 counties in the state were more heavily in debt.

The figures for the statement are contained in the consolidated statement of county indebtedness, revenues, and expenditures for the year ended September 30, 1958, recently released by the State Department of Examiners of Public Accounts.

Coffee county has an indebtedness of $763,109.01, an increase of $30,616.45 over the same date one year previous.
Adjoining counties having a larger debt are Dale, $805,471-83, a reduction of almost $800,
000 in one year; Geneva, $1,- 147,000, a whopping increase of well over $100,000 in one year; and Pike, a $101,000 increase.

Debts of other nearby counties include Covington, $161,- 664.73; Crenshaw, $2,807,944; Houston $408,918.53. The last three counties showed an indebtedness less than Coffee, but the Covington county figures were up over $92,000 from last year.

Coffee county's debt consists of warrants and claims, $731,- 000, and other indebtedness of $32,009.01. The first item is interest bearing. There is no bonded indebtedness.

Crenshaw county is the only neighboring county with no bonded indebtedness and no warrants and claims outstanding.

While three neighboring counties had debts exceeding that of Coffee county, only two counties had revenues less than Coffee county.

Coffee county had a revenue of $844,471.15, an increase of $757, over the previous year.
Crenshaw, $3,515,273.32; and Geneva, $3,334,651.93, had less revenue than Coffee.

Other counties had revenues as follows: Covington, $655,966.15;
Dale, $655,304.47; Houston, $1,- 047,941.01; and Pike, $589,500-28. Each county showed an increase in revenue over the previous year.

Two of the seven counties under study show a decrease in total expenditures for the year ending Sept. 30, 1958. They are Coffee, and Dale counties.

Coffee county showed the greatest decrease in expenditure—a big $122,435.70 less than the previous year. Dale county had an expenditure of almost $30,000 less than the year before. The other counties increased their expenditures from $4,000 to $227,000 during the year.

Only four counties in the entire state showed no indebtedness—bonded, warrants and claims, temporary loans, or other. They are Bibb, Henry, Randolph, and Shelby counties.

A Symbol of Elba Progress

BOOM FORECAST BY MAGAZINE DURING 1960

Washington, D. C. — Business will boom in the 60's, according to a report from the Ap-plinger organization on changes and growth during the next decade.

The business boom will flow from population growth, plus rising productivity which will increase the output per man-hour, plus higher incomes, plus the pull of people who want more and better things for themselves, plus the almost shifting of business patterns, Kiplinger says.

Companies will expand, despite painful and expensive growth. They must add capacity, products, diversity and new outlets as a hedge against the rapid changes that would drive them down and possibly out.

Changes in Stores
More chains, larger stores and many stores taking on additional lines is the revolutionary picture for merchandising in the 60's. The food store will become a general store, with other things than groceries.

The end of the trend is not yet for the super-super market.
Pre-packaged and frozen foods, requiring more complex equipment, fancier fixtures will all bring on new kinds of warehousing needs.

Also there's automation—this is rising fast. It means more mechanical equipment and system to replace muscle power. It's a must for domestic business, and it's a must for our foreign trade. Automation will be lapped up and trained for top executive posts, technical and engineering jobs. And, surprisingly, the lower-reception jobs such as foreman and supervisor will be filled by college grads.

As business gets to be increasingly more responsible will rest on the individual. Business processes themselves are being upgraded and the men who run them. Automation adds to the need for the trained and the educated in key spots.

Wages and salaries are bound to rise, following the patterns now. Despite higher prices of everything—probably 20 percent higher by the late 60's—most people will be able to afford more things.

This means a continuation of inflation at about the same rate as in the past decade. Savings, pensions, etc., will shrink in terms of what they will buy.

Unions will be affected by the growth of white collar workers, specialists or experts in various fields. Unions will find it harder to organize effectively. Union leaders are already foreseeing the trend.

More women will join the ranks of workers in the 60's.
They've got to work for the growing economy requires that they do work.

Now 69 per cent of women working outside the home are married and run households.
The proportion will rise, especially women in the 45 to 54 age group who have raised their children. 45 per cent of the women of middle age will be working by the late 60's.

NEW MARKETS FOR PEANUTS BEING SOUGHT

Alabama's 18,000 peanut growers, as part of their campaign to develop new markets in preparation for their 1959 crop, recently told their story to manufacturers in to national conventions at the same time and launched a personal appearance tour by a home economist aimed at teaching the nation's housewives how to use more peanut butter in hot weather meals.

The activities were part of the summer market promotion drive of the Alabama Peanut Producers Association.

Peanut butter manufacturers and other representatives of the national peanut industry present at the Atlanta convention of the Southeastern Peanut Association commended the Alabama growers for an "outstanding" job in helping to raise per capita consumption of peanut butter. The convention heard an Alabama nutritional and recipe materials which is provided to newspapers, magazines, home demonstration agents and other food specialists, and saw a color film produced by the Association which is being distributed nationally to television stations.

Although most Alabama peanuts are currently being consumed as peanut butter, the growers are aggressively exploring other marketing opportunities, according to H. H.
Knowles, of Headland, Ala., association president.

The growers' association is also working closely with several processors on new peanut-salt techniques which could open an entirely new market.
Mr. Knowles said.

The personal appearance tour demonstrating uses for peanut butter in summer meals was conducted by Margaret Davis, Murphy, director of the Association's test kitchens.

The Russell family held the

The Piggly Wiggly Super Market opening was described as "better than expected" attender crowds had milled through the store during its first week.

The opening attracted shoppers from a wider-than-usual area and proved to be an increased incentive for out-town shoppers to come to Elba.

W. T. Benson, of Benson Wholesale Co., owner of the Piggly Wiggly franchise here, expressed great confidence in the future of Elba and said that the reaction to the new super market justified his confidence.
